

Florence and Mary - inspiring women

Test your knowledge on the lives of two truly inspiring women: Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole

You can test yourself or play with someone else in your home.

Question card 1 (player #1): In this card there are 24 facts about Mary Seacole's and Florence Nightingale's lives listed in random order. Put an M in the boxes next to ones you think belong to Mary and an F next to those that belong to Florence.

She had an older sister

She wrote a famous book called 'Notes on Nursing'

She had wanted to work as a nurse in India but could not raise the funds to go

Her mother was one of 10 children

She travelled to many different countries

She borrowed money to cover the cost of her journey to the Crimea

Her mother and father were wealthy

She was bedridden for many years

She was bankrupt by the end of the Crimean War

She worked hard to improve the lives of the men in the Army

After the war she was awarded several medals for bravery

Her father was known as WEN

Florence and Mary - inspiring women

Test your knowledge on the lives of two truly inspiring women: Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole

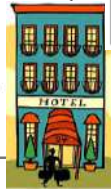

You can test yourself or play with someone else in your home.

Question card 1 (player #1): In this card there are 24 facts about Mary Seacole's and Florence Nightingale's lives listed in random order. Put an M in the boxes next to ones you think belong to Mary and an F next to those that belong to Florence.

She had a half brother called Edward

She led a party of nurses to the Crimean War

She ran the British Hotel during the Crimean War

She went to Kaiserswerth to train as a nurse

A benefit was held in London to raise money for her after the War

She died in 1881 aged 76 years old

She became blind in old age

She was taught herbal remedies by her mother

She met Queen Victoria

Her father was a Scottish Army Officer

She never married

She worked with Elizabeth Blackwell

Florence and Mary - inspiring women

Test your knowledge on the lives of two truly inspiring women: Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole

You can test yourself or play with someone else in your home.

Question card 2 (player #2): In this card there are 24 facts about Mary Seacole's and Florence Nightingale's lives listed in random order. Put an M in the boxes next to ones you think belong to Mary and an F next to those that belong to Florence.

She visited London in 1821 and stayed for a year

Her courage and Nursing skills were reported in the Times newspaper

She had a pet owl called Athena

She had experience of dealing with both Cholera and Yellow

Her mother ran a boarding house in Jamaica

She was well educated

She was concerned about the welfare of the soldiers in the Crimea

During the Crimean War she was based at Scutari

She often went onto the actual battlefield

She made nursing a respectable job for women

She was named after the place she was born in

She had a gift for mathematics

Florence and Mary - inspiring women

Test your knowledge on the lives of two truly inspiring women: Florence Nightingale and Mary Seacole

You can test yourself or play with someone else in your home.

Question card 2 (player #2): In this card there are 24 facts about Mary Seacole's and Florence Nightingale's lives listed in random order. Put an M in the boxes next to ones you think belong to Mary and an F next to those that belong to Florence.

There is a portrait of her in the National Portrait Gallery

Her parents did not want her to become a nurse

She believed that infection came from dirt and stale air.

She established a training school for nurses

She wrote her own autobiography which was a best seller.

Her family knew many people in the world of politics

She had a sister named Louisa

She did not reduce the death rate of soldiers during the war

She was born in Jamaica in 1805

She worked under the heat and danger of the battlefield

She was 31 when she got married

She spent her later years in London